Nonprofit and Publicly Administered Standards

Combined Glossary of Terms

Network Initial Vision 2018 Draft

- A vertical list of four items, each preceded by a white circular marker. The markers are connected by a thin line that starts at the top, goes down, and then branches out to the left of each circle. The text for each item is contained within a dark blue horizontal bar.
- Build in redundancy such that each standard is comprehensive
 - List requirements for measuring compliance for each standard
 - Include diversity and inclusion throughout all standards
 - Combine technical guidance and resources into each standard

Network Insights 2020 Draft

- Maintain 2012 document organization using elements of practice
- Minimize duplication and reorganize for clarity and flow
- Incorporate Core Model and guiding principles
- Elevate diversity, equity and inclusion to full standard
- Separate the QA process; yet to be developed
- Clarify application of standards to nonprofit vs publicly administered

Standards for Local CASA/GAL Programs Documents

- Standards for Local CASA/GAL Programs – Nonprofit
- Standards for Local CASA/GAL Programs – Publicly Administered
- Combined Glossary of Terms

Nonprofit vs Publicly Administered

- Nonprofit organizations are required to adhere to statutes and regulations regarding management and operation that are not generally applicable to publicly administered programs
- Public entities (courts, counties and state government agencies) operate with a built-in infrastructure which includes some practices (e.g. financial protocols and reporting, human resources and hiring) that are inherent in a public entity and which it controls, so the program does not have to
- Terms and language may vary between nonprofit and publicly administered programs. For example:
 - Oversight for a nonprofit is provided by a 'governing board' and oversight for a publicly administered program is provided by an 'administrative authority'.
 - The title generally used for the leader of a nonprofit CASA/GAL program is 'executive director' and the title generally used for the leader of a publicly administered program is 'program director'.
